HEADMASTER'S NEWSLETTER #41

TERM 4

26 NOVEMBER 2019

Annual Prize Giving

Our Annual Prize Giving ceremony will take place on Monday, 2 December 2019 at 11h00 at the St. Anne's College Indoor Centre. This is compulsory for all Grade 4 to 7 pupils. Parents are invited to join us to celebrate the achievements of our pupils, especially the Grade 7's.

Children must wear their full summer uniform. No strops or tracksuits may be worn. Please ensure that your child's school shoes are polished and they are looking smart.

The School will close at 10h00 for all Grade 1 to 3 pupils. Please note that the Admin office will be closed during the Prize Giving Ceremony. Aftercare will open from 10h00.

Grade 4 to 7 children may leave with their parents after the ceremony.

Carols by Candlelight 'African Noël'

Our Choirs will be presenting Carols by Candlelight at the swimming pool tonight, Tuesday, 26 November at 18h00. All Laddsworth families and friends (Grades 1 to 7) are cordially invited to join us. An invitation has been uploaded onto the D6 School Communicator under RESOURCES (General). Laddsworth children attending the Carols by Candlelight 'African Noël' must please be dressed in school uniform. There is no cost.

Thank You

- Civvies Day for Support Staff:

Thank you to everyone who supported the Civvies Day for our Support Staff. An amount of R5 575.00 was raised.

- 'Mums who Pray' Prayer group:

A very big thank you to the mums who supplied delicious mince pies for our staff tea. Your gesture is much appreciated.

- Sport:

As we end the sporting year, I would like to thank all those parents who have so willingly given of their time to assist with transport to various sporting activities. We also value your input, suggestions and assistance, as well as the support of your children in the many sporting activities that have taken place this year.
